Section II - Program Data:

Study Abroad in China	Full Program Cost (does not include passport)	$4,099
	(includes $200 nonrefundable deposit)

Section III- Payments:

The number of students that can participate in Study Abroad Programs is limited. Early application with payment of your non-refundable deposit is advised. Approval of your Application to Participate in Study Abroad and acceptance of your $200 non-refundable deposit will reserve your place in your Study Abroad Program. This reservation is made with the understanding that you are committed to full payment of program costs and full participation in the program as stipulated in program brochures, handbooks, and course syllabi and other materials.

$200 nonrefundable deposit is due December 18, 2009. Submit payment to the fee collection window with a memo from the Faculty Coordinator. A receipt for payment must be submitted with your application.

Late enrollment will be accepted through February 5th, 2010 with a non-refundable $250 surcharge.

$3,899 is due by February 5th, 2010. Receipt of payment must be presented to the Faculty Coordinator. Documented anticipated financial aid will be considered payment. In the event a student's anticipated financial aid becomes unavailable for any reason, including suspension of awards because of withdrawal from the Study Abroad program, the student will be responsible for all Study Abroad fees as indicated in this form and other program materials.

Note: Students who owe payments to the University will not be eligible to participate in the Study Abroad Program until all debts have been cleared, or the Controller's Office certifies that payment arrangements have been made.

Section IV - Refunds:

- Students will be notified of program cancellations by February 28, 2010.
- Students whose written withdrawal is received by the Faculty Coordinator by February 5th, 2010, 4:30PM, will receive full refund of payments made minus $200 non-refundable deposit. Those who enrolled after December 18th 2009 will also forfeit the $250 surcharge.
- Students who have made full payment and whose written withdrawal is received by the Faculty Coordinator after February 5th, 2010, 4:30PM, will be refunded $3,299.
- No refunds will be made for withdrawals received by the Faculty Coordinator after February 19, 2010, 4:30PM.
- No refunds will be made for students that withdraw from a program in progress before its completion.
- No refunds will be made for students that are scheduled to participate in a program but fail to attend.
- In case of withdrawals, Financial Aid arrangements made to cover Study Abroad costs will be suspended. In the event a student's anticipated financial aid becomes unavailable for any reason, including suspension of awards because of withdrawal from the Study Abroad program, the student will be responsible for all Study Abroad fees as indicated in the application form and other program materials.

Section V - Stipulations:

College of Business Administration Study Abroad programs are only available to registered Nicholls juniors, seniors, and graduate students 21 years of age or older and in good academic standing (students on academic probation or suspension are not eligible to participate). Course pre- and co-requisites must be met.

Acceptance of your application and non-refundable deposit does NOT mean approval to participate in the Study Abroad program. The Faculty Coordinator will notify you in writing of your approval to participate, non-approval to participate, or waiting-list status.

Nicholls State University, hereinafter referred to as Nicholls, and its agents, directors, and officers, act only as agents in arrangements made for this program. Neither Nicholls nor its agents, directors, or officers shall be liable for any injury, death of persons, loss, damage or accident, delays or expenses arising from Acts of God, dangerous incident on land or sea, fire, breakdowns of machinery or equipment, acts of government or other authorities, wars, civil disturbances, strikes, riots, thefts, pilferage, epidemics, quarantines, changes in itinerary, weather, sickness, or from any act of omission of any individual, firm or corporation furnishing transportation, sightseeing, hotel accommodations, or any other services in connection with the tours, site visits, or other activities related to Nicholls's study abroad programs. The right is reserved to amend the advertised itinerary whenever transportation schedules or other factors make this necessary or advisable.

I have read and understand the payment and refund schedules and stipulations contained in this form. I further understand that, if I intend to use Financial Aid as my method of payment for this program, I am fully responsible for payment to this program as outlined above in the event my anticipated financial aid becomes unavailable for any reason.

I hereby affirm that to the best of my knowledge all information furnished on this form is complete and accurate. I understand that withholding information requested and giving false information may make me ineligible for enrollment in Nicholls's study abroad programs. It is my intention to participate in the Nicholls Study Abroad Program as outlined above.
