

Dyslexia Center News

Center students have gone through advising for the spring 2009 semester, and students enrolled in the Center are allowed early registration privileges. Early registration allows students to arrange a schedule with preferred times and instructors. The Center will also be a part of Colonel Day at NSU this Saturday. See below for more information.

Colonel Day

This Saturday, November 8, 2008, NSU will host a morning dedicated to incoming fall 2009 students. Potential students will visit the campus, get more information about NSU, tour residence halls, and visit with faculty, current NSU students and campus organizations. This day has been designed to showcase all Nicholls has to offer along with a lot of fun activities to get high school students excited about NSU as their choice of a college.

Two of the Center's students were honored this semester with the A+ Scholarship Award. This scholarship is awarded to first time freshmen with at least a 2.5 GPA and a 20 on the ACT; students also submit a resume to the awarding committee. Awardees were pictured at a fundraiser for the scholarship which was held on October 8th that showcased food from many of the area's better restaurants, along with food from students in the John Folsie Culinary School.
