Music Events General Information – 2018-19

For both solos and ensembles, piano accompaniments may be used and may be played by the teacher or other accompanist. There will be no accompanist provided by the Rally host. Accompanist must play from the original music. No photocopied music is allowed, and if this occurs, the performance has grounds for disqualification. The use of recorded accompaniments is discouraged, though not prohibited. Music performed should be memorized. Unless serving as an accompanist, no music teachers, rally coordinators, or outside guests will be allowed in the performance room.

It is advisable, but not required, that the performers have original (not copied) music for the judge. In general, it is recommended that there be no alteration of the music or texts as published. However, if optional notes are found in the selections, the singer is advised to use the one best suited to his/her capabilities.

In deciding the contest, the following elements of musical performance will be considered:

- Intonation: Is the selection sung exactly in tune?
- Tone Quality: Is the tone efficiently produced and pleasant to listen to, or is it forced, harsh, and unmusical?
- Phrasing and expression: tempo, rhythmic flow, dynamics, variations to tone, and tempo to suit the mood.
- Suitability of the selection: Is the piece well adapted to the voice and musical ability of the singer(s)?
- Accuracy: rhythms, pitches, attacks, releases, etc.
- Diction: Are the words understandable? Are the vowels sung correctly? Are the consonants clearly enunciated?

Ratings and awards are given as follows: Superior, Excellent, Good, Average, and Fair. Students earning superior or excellent ratings will be awarded medals and certificates.
