Qualifications: I earned a Masters of Arts degree in Counseling with a concentration in Clinical Mental Health from Northwestern State University of Louisiana in December of 2017. I am a Provisional Licensed Professional Counselor (PLPC) #PLC 7351 and hold a provisional license with the Louisiana LPC Board of Examiners located at 8631 Summa Avenue, Baton Rouge, LA 70809 (225-765-2515). The Louisiana LPC Board of Examiners has approved Adrienne Naquin-Bolton, LPC-S, NCC, 906 East 1st St., Thibodaux, LA 70301 (985-448-4091) as my LPC Board-Approved Supervisor. Ms. Bolton is licensed with the Louisiana LPC Board as a Licensed Professional Counselor (LPC# 4385), a National Certified Counselor (NCC# 247428), and is approved to supervise PLPCs obtaining supervised experience hours needed to be fully licensed as a LPC in the State of Louisiana.

Counseling Relationship: I see counseling as the process between you, the client, and I, the PLPC, as one where we build trust in each other, as we work together to set goals, identify stressors, define presenting problems, and any resources that might help us reach our goal. The counseling process is driven by you the client, as it is your time and goals we are striving to meet.

Areas of Focus: I have general training with a focus in Clinical Mental Health. I have experience working with both children and adults on a wide variety of mental health concerns. I also have experience working in a college counseling setting, and am familiar with a wide range of presenting problems that occur within this population. If your concerns are in an area I do not feel properly qualified to treat, I will discuss this with you and attempt to refer you to a professional better qualified to work with you.

Fees and Office Procedures: The counseling services are free for all NSU students, faculty, and staff. If you are unable to keep a scheduled appointment, please make all attempts to notify the University Counseling Center in advance. The Counseling Center reserves the right to charge a $5 fee to the account of any client who is a No Show (more than 15 minutes late and has not called before the scheduled time to cancel). It is the University Counseling Center's policy that clients who fail to keep two appointments without calling in advance will be terminated for the remainder of the semester in which the missed appointments occurred.

Services Offered and Clients Served: I use an eclectic approach to counseling, using a foundation of Person-Centered Therapy to build the client/counselor relationship. Using influences from Rational Emotive Behavioral Therapy and Solution Focused perspective when the counseling relationship would benefit or grow from the widen approach. This approach follows the belief that building the relationship between the counselor and client, sets up the foundation for the client's future progress as the client has established trust in the counselor. Along with this, we evaluate potential triggers, thought processes, what has and has not worked for the client in the past, rating them on a scale, and together developing solutions that work for the client.

Code of Conduct: As a PLPC, I am required by law to adhere to the Code of Conduct for practice as a PLPC that has been adopted by my licensing board, the Louisiana LPC Board of Examiners. A copy of the Code of Conduct is available upon request. If for any reason you are dissatisfied with my services, please let me know. If I am unable to resolve your concerns, you may report complaints to the Louisiana State board of Professional Counselors, 8631 Summa Avenue, Baton Rouge, LA 70809, (225) 765-2515.

Confidentiality: Material revealed in counseling will remain strictly confidential except for material shared with my Supervisor, which will only be shared to serve in the best interest of the client and under the following circumstances, in accordance with State law:

1. The client signs a written release of information indicating informed consent of such release.
2. The client expresses intent to harm him/herself or someone else.
3. There is reasonable suspicion of abuse/neglect against a minor child, elderly person (60 or older), or dependent adult.
4. A court order is received directing the disclosure of information.

Privileged Communication: It is my policy to assert privileged communication on behalf of the client and the right to consult with the client if at all possible, except during an emergency, before mandated disclosure.

In the event of family counseling, material obtained from an adult client individually may be shared with the client's spouse or other family member only with the client's written permission.

Emergency Situations: I can be reached at (985) 448-4080 during the hours of 8:00-4:30, Monday through Friday. If an emergency occurs after hours, you may contact University Police at (985) 448-4911. You may also seek help through hospital emergency facilities or by calling 911.

There may be an emergency that prevents me from attending our sessions. If this should occur, you will be contacted and informed of the situation.

Client Responsibility: You, the client, and I, the Counselor, are working together throughout the counseling process. Trust, honesty, and effort are essential to succeed in this process. At any point if you, the client, should have any suggestions or concerns about the counseling process, I expect you to inform me, so that we can continue to work together to ensure you are receiving the best services possible. If at any point during this process another mental health provider can provide you with better services, I will help with the referral process. If you are currently receiving services from another mental health professional, I expect you to inform me of this and grant me permission to share information with this professional so that we may coordinate our services to you.

Physical Health: Physical health is just as important as your emotional well-being. It can be a contributing factor in the counseling process, so it is strongly recommended that if you have not had a physical examination in the last year that you receive one.

Potential Counseling Risk: There are certain risks that could occur when entering into the counseling relationship, should any of these occur, please feel free to share new concerns or feelings with me so that we may address them. Given the personal nature of counseling, there are certain risks the client should be aware of.

- As a result of discussions in counseling, the client may become aware of additional concerns or problems;
- Moreover, it is not uncommon as the client initiates the process of change that relationships in the client's life may be affected. Changes in relationship patterns may result from individual or family counseling and may produce unpredicted and/or adverse responses from other people in the client's social system;
- Making changes through therapy may bring about unforeseen changes in the client's life;
- Conflicts and problems may intensify as feelings are expressed.
