Core Faculty

Core faculty for the Clinical Mental Health Counseling and School Counseling Program include:

- Michelle de la Paz, PhD, LPC-S, LMFT (Joined January 2023)
- Mary Kathryn Gastinel, Ph.D., LPC, NCC, Coordinator, Clinical Mental Health Counseling Program (Joined January 2022)
- Walt Hammerli, Ph.D., LPC-S – Practicum & Internship Coordinator (Joined Fall 2021)
- Tiffany Henderson, Ph.D., LPC, NCC – Data Manager (Joined January 2022)
- Chantrelle, Varnado-Johnson, Ph.D., LPC-S, BC-TMH, RPT, NCC, Coordinator, School Counseling Program (Joined Fall 2018)

Evaluative Measures

Evaluation is critical to the process of assessing program effectiveness. A combination of formative and summative assessments are used to evaluate the effectiveness of the CMHC and SC programs. Formative assessments measure student learning throughout the program while summative assessments measure student learning at program completion. Diagram 1 below provides an illustration of the components of each evaluative measure.

Diagram 1 – Evaluative Measures

*A complete list of key assessments can be found in the Program Evaluation Plan. This list is an example of key assessments that are common across multiple skills-based courses.

Program Enrollment

Table 3 is a detailed view of program enrollment data by semester including full time equivalent student to faculty ratio information. The CACREP full time equivalent student to faculty ratio should not exceed 12:1.

Table 3 – Program Enrollment

Semester	Clinical Mental Health & School Counseling Students	Full Time Equivalent Student to Faculty Ratio
Fall 2022	Part Time - 24 Full Time – 85 Total - 109	11:1
Spring 2023	Part Time – 22 Full Time – 80 Total - 102	12:1
Summer 2023	Part Time - 8 Full Time – 70 Total – 78	13:1

Program Outcomes Data

Key assessment data is used to measure student learning throughout the program. The charts below depict the outcomes for each key assessment from the Fall 2022, Spring 2023, and Summer 2023 semesters combined. Program goals require 80% or more ratings in the ‘Mastered...’ and ‘Developing’ categories. A legend is provided below to denote these categories.

Comprehensive Examination Analysis

The Comprehensive Examination is administered to candidates of the MCMH and MESC degree during the final semester of the program. Candidates are tested on material from the 8 CACREP core areas and must earn a score of 70% or higher as a condition of graduation.

Table 4 illustrates the pass rate for each semester. The pass rate increased from 93% in the Fall 2022 semester to 100% in subsequent semesters.

Table 4 – Comprehensive Examination Data

Semester	# Candidates Tested	# Candidates Passed	Pass Rate	Overall Average
Fall 2022	15	14	93%	106.94

Spring 2023	10	10	100%	11.6
Summer 2023	4	4	100%	116.25

National Counselor Examination (NCE)

In the state of Louisiana, the NCE or NCMHCE is used to gain licensure to become a Licensed Professional Counselor. Students may elect to take the National Counselor Examination (NCE) and share scores with Nicholls State University.

Table 5 shows the results of scores reported by semester and program. The highest pass rates are among CMHC candidates with a 100% pass rate for Fall 2022 and Spring 2023. The CMHC pass rate exceeded the national NCE pass rate by 21%.

Table 5 – NCE Data

Program	Semester	Students Taking NCE	Students Passed NCE	Nicholls Total Pass Rate	National NCE Pass Rate
CMHC	Fall 2022	5	5	100%	79%
SC	Fall 2022	3	2	67%	79%
CMHC	Spring 2023	5	5	100%	81%
SC	Spring 2023	3	2	67%	81%

Praxis

In addition to the Comprehensive Examination, candidates in the School Counseling program must attempt the Praxis exam as a condition of graduation. Table 6 illustrates the Fall 2022 and Spring 2023 results. There were no school counseling graduates for the Summer 2023 semester.

Table 6 – Praxis Results

Semester	# Candidates Tested	# Candidates Passed	Pass Rate
Fall 2022	8	7	88%
Spring 2023	4	3	75%
Summer 2023	N/A	N/A	N/A

Exit Survey

The Graduate Exit Survey is administered to CMHC and SC students during the COUN 595 (Master's Comprehensive Examination) and COUN 596 (Clinical Mental Health Master's Comprehensive Exam) courses each semester. The survey is used to collect demographic information and to assess the student's experience in the program. Survey data was collected via an anonymous Qualtrics survey disseminated by the test proctor before the comprehensive examination.

Chart 1 – Type of Counseling Responses reflect student satisfaction with their ability to conduct individual, group, and family counseling.

Table 7 – Confidence in Counseling Skills Responses reflect student confidence in their ability perform specific counseling skills.

When asked to describe how prepared students felt by core faculty, responses varied from ‘very well’ to ‘not very prepared’. Students expressed concerns about faculty turnover, lack of structure, disorganization, and a greater focus on clinical mental health than school counseling. Students reported that they benefited from courses designed around experiential learning and supportive professors.

Students identified program strengths in a number of similar areas. Supportive faculty, the quality of the internship experience, and the hybrid structure of courses.

Program areas for improvement included lack of organization, faculty turnover, interest in more school counseling courses.

Alumni Survey

The Alumni Survey is disseminated to all Nicholls State University graduates to obtain feedback about the graduate experience and graduate outcomes. Survey data was collected via a known survey disseminated by the test proctor before the comprehensive examination.

Survey results are reflected below:

Plans after graduation - All respondents expressed an interest in working in the field of counseling. Respondents planned to remain at their internship sites, start a doctoral program, and/or prepare for licensure.

Professor availability to students outside of class - Of 28 responses, 22 reported that professors were frequently available outside of class as depicted in Chart 3 below.

Chart 3

Preparation for Career – Of 28 responses, 5 respondents rated the program as excellent in preparing the student for a career in the field. Sixteen respondents rated the program as good as depicted in Chart 4 below.

Chart 4

Overall Program Quality – Of 28 responses, 5 respondents rated the program as excellent. Thirteen respondents rated the program as good as depicted in Chart 5 below.

Chart 5

Q7 - Overall, the quality of my program is

Understanding of Goals & Requirements – Of 28 responses, 20 respondents rated frequently and 4 responded occasionally. See Chart 6 below.

Q8 - Faculty provided a clear understanding of the goals and requirements for each class.

Additional Comments/Suggestions – In summary, students expressed a desire for more structure, consistent and frequent information about the comprehensive examination and portfolio, and an interest in more classes specific to school counselors.

Site Supervisor Survey

The Site Supervisor Survey is disseminated to practicum and internship site supervisors for the Clinical Mental Health and School Counseling programs. The survey is used to gather demographic information and measure site supervisor perception of program effectiveness. Site supervisors received an email invitation to complete the survey in Qualtrics anonymously. A total of 17 responses were received. Results are reflected below.

Nicholls State University Student Preparation – Site supervisors rated NSU student preparation compared to other counseling programs. Fifty-two percent of respondents rated students as ‘somewhat prepared’ and 47% ‘extremely prepared’ as reflected in Chart 7 below.

Site Supervisor Satisfaction with Graduate Ability – Site supervisors rated level of satisfaction with student ability in individual, group, and family counseling. Across all three measures individual counseling rated higher than group and family counseling as reflected in Chart 8 below. Fifty-six percent of respondents were ‘extremely satisfied’ with student’s individual counseling skills and 39% were ‘somewhat satisfied’.

Chart 8

Site Supervisor Satisfaction with Specific Skill Areas – Site supervisors rated level of satisfaction with specific counseling skill areas. Students were rated highest ‘extremely satisfied’ in ‘seeking assistance from supervisors’ and abiding by ethical and legal standards’.

Table 10

Skill Areas	Extremely satisfied	Somewhat satisfied	Neither satisfied nor dissatisfied	Somewhat dissatisfied	Extremely dissatisfied

Respondents were also asked to describe the strengths of the Nicholls State University Counseling Program. Overall, site supervisors commented on student's broad knowledgebase of theories and interventions and appreciated that students are receptive to feedback. Recommended areas for improvements included: improving documentation skills, understanding how to apply ethical standards as a school counselor versus a clinical mental health counselor, understanding of mandated reporting responsibilities, and understanding of other aspects of counseling besides private practice.

Recommended Program Improvements

Pending Advisory Board Meeting and Strategic Planning Meeting scheduled for February 2024.
