Nicholls State University
2027 Employee Holiday Schedule
****

As a reminder, this schedule does not preclude the assignment of certain employees to perform services that cannot be dispensed with on days the university is closed. In such cases, supervisors will make necessary arrangements for employees to be on duty.

Employees will be charged either compensatory leave or annual leave for the additional days of university closure that are not included in the official holidays. Employees whose compensatory and/or annual leave balances are insufficient will be charged leave without pay.
