Court Finalists

Scores from the application and the interviews will be added together. The seven applicants for queen with the highest scores within the 100 possible points and the seven applicants for king with the highest scores within the 100 possible points will advance to become members of the Homecoming Court. In the event of a tie for the seventh spot, the interview score alone will be used to break the tie. If a tie remains, the application score alone will be used. If a tie remains, the essay score alone will be used. If a tie remains, a simple majority vote of the Panel will determine who claims the seventh spot. The Panel Chair and the Dean of Students will review and total the scores and apply any necessary tie breakers. The Panel will be notified of the 14 members who will advance.

D. Election Process

- Once this process is complete and the 14 court members have been identified, the two winners will be voted on by the student body as per the SGA election code.
 - All concerns, violations, complaints related to this election will be processed through the SGA
- The Homecoming Court will be announced on Wednesday, September 21, 2022 after 12:00 noon.

- The Homecoming King and Queen will be announced at halftime during the Homecoming football game on Saturday, October 15, 2022.

F. General Annual Attention to this Process

- The dates contained in this document will be altered each year in relation to the date of Homecoming weekend as determined by the university.
- The Dean of Students will select:
 - The essay question from a pool of questions approved by the President's Cabinet every five years.
 - The interview questions from a pool of questions approved by the President's Cabinet every five years that reflect the approved rubric categories.
- All official evaluation, scoring, and commenting should be done digitally in a manner that allows Panel members to submit their scores and comments through a form that goes to the Panel Chair and is not stored in Panel member accounts or devices.
- Summaries of outcomes should be shared with the Panel in a manner that does not allow Panel members to save, copy, or store the information in their accounts or devices.
- Written/Print Copies
 - Panel members must turn in all written notes and scoring sheets to the Chair of the Panel
- All digital and written/printed materials should be turned into the Dean of Students Office at the end of the selection process.
- This extended detailed version of the process is to ensure the Panel has clear instructions. While this version will remain accessible to the campus community, a concise version will be posted for students that is clear, user-friendly, and provides appropriate guidance and transparency.

Week Event Registration Information

If a campus department would like to host an event and have it listed as a homecoming week event all appropriate event request forms must be submitted to the Reservations Office which is located in the Student Union near the Post Office. Student organizations should use the event registration form in Presence.
