SUBJECT: Aftermath of Katrina

Due to the delays caused by the devastation created by Hurricane Katrina on the southeastern Louisiana region, it became necessary to cancel classes at Nicholls State University for several days. Therefore, our original 14th Class Day (Statistics Day) was moved from September 9, 2005 to September 19, 2005. In the aftermath of the storm, NSU tried to accommodate hundreds of students who were displaced from the New Orleans area.

A decision was made to halt registration activity as of September 19, 2005. However, due to the influx of students, a few days were needed to clean up any data problems still lingering before freezing the files. As a result, the files were frozen on September 22, 2005, as the second hurricane, Hurricane Rita, was threatening the Louisiana coast. The University was again closed on Friday, September 23, 2005. Finally, we have arrived to the point where we can print our official statistics for our Fall 2005 semester.

Fall 2005 was to be a historical event before Mother Nature intervened. New admissions standards were implemented at Nicholls State University. An enrollment dip was anticipated. With the hundreds of displaced students welcomed to our campus, the enrollment picture is not as it would have been. Nicholls State University has welcomed 645 students who were unable to attend school in the New Orleans area. Another impact of the events following the hurricane was an increase in resignations of Nicholls students who had registered prior to Hurricane Katrina. A total of 86 previously enrolled Nicholls students resigned citing the hurricane as the reason for the resignation.

To assist the University or various departments, we are going to be printing two versions of the enrollment statistics book. The first version contains our official numbers, including displaced students. We felt the need to show exactly where those additional students impacted us as a university. Therefore a second version of the statistics book will be printed with ONLY the displaced students' information. Both copies may be viewed online at www.nicholls.edu/ir/Publications/default.html under the Enrollment Statistics section of the page.

Any questions or comments are welcomed. Contact me at (985) 448-4415 or by email at renee.hicks@nicholls.edu.

Thank you.
