RSO EVENT GUIDELINES
FALL 2020

With the health and safety of all students at the forefront, these guidelines and protocols are being provided to assist your organization with planning a safe and successful meeting or event this fall. By balancing health and safety with engagement opportunities, our goal is for your student experience during these challenging times to continue to be positive and safe at the same time. It is important to note that in these rapidly changing circumstances, these guidelines and protocols will be adjusted as needed in accordance with CDC, state, and university guidance.

1. Quick Takeaways
