CONDUCT JURISDICTION

The Dean of Students manages all non-academic misconduct allegations for the undergraduate and graduate community at Nicholls State University. The focus of the inquiry in judicial proceedings shall be to determine if the individual, group, or organization is “responsible” or “not responsible” for violation of the Standards of Conduct. The student conduct process is fundamentally different from criminal and civil court procedures. The judicial process at Nicholls grants a student the opportunity to learn. In doing so, students should hopefully gain a better understanding of their personal development. The Dean of Students is primarily responsible for day to day implementation of the Student Policy & Procedure Manual which includes Student Conduct Procedures. An Academic Dean is responsible for handling issues that relate to violations of Academic Dishonesty, Plagiarism, or disruptive behavior related to classroom or academic activity.

KNOWLEDGE OF STANDARDS

Students are responsible for knowing and complying with the Standards of Conduct, and any special instructions and directives announced by the Vice President of Student Affairs, Dean of Students, or designee. Ignorance is not an acceptable justification for committing violations of the Standards, special instructions, or directives. Lack of intent or awareness of the Standards or other University policies will not be accepted as excuses for violations and will generally receive the same consequences as deliberate violations.

The following definitions and terminology are important for understanding and following the guidelines listed herein this manual:

GENERAL INFORMATION

INSTITUTIONAL AUTHORITY

The authority over student behavior involving individuals, groups, and/or organizations rests with the Board of Supervisors for the University of Louisiana System and is delegated by them to the President of the University. The President delegates authority in matters of non-academic student conduct to the Vice President for Student Affairs and the Dean of Students to establish and hold student conduct proceedings that will ensure the proper administration of the University's rules and regulations. The Vice President of Student Affairs and Dean of Students or designee, shall oversee the operation of the student conduct system and administration of the Standards of Conduct. The Dean of Students or designee has the right to consider all alleged violations of the Standards and determine if a student, group, or student organization should be sanctioned for the violation(s). The Dean of Students or designee shall determine the appropriate course of action for all alleged violations. In exceptional circumstances and in the Vice President of Student Affairs discretion, the Vice President of Student Affairs may modify procedures outlined under these Standards of Conduct.

In addition, Nicholls State University expressly reserves the right to revise, supplement, or withdraw any policy or portion of a policy from time to time, as it deems necessary.

ACADEMIC AFFAIRS

As members of the Nicholls State University community, students are expected to uphold the highest standards of academic and personal conduct. Disruptive behavior in the classroom and academic dishonesty violate these standards as well as the trust and commitment among students and faculty.

The primary responsibility for managing the learning environment rests with the faculty. Students who engage in any prohibited or unlawful acts that result in disruption of a class may be directed by the professor/instructor to leave the class for the remainder of the class period. The term “prohibited . . . acts” includes behavior prohibited by the professor/instructor (including, but not limited to, making unauthorized recording of any part of a class, online meeting, or other academic settings, persistently speaking without being recognized or called on, refusing to be seated, leaving or entering in a manner that is disruptive.). It must be emphasized that this provision is not designed to be used as a means to punish classroom dissent. The expression of disagreement with the instructor or classmates is not in itself disruptive behavior. Longer suspensions from a class or dismissal on conduct grounds must be preceded by the student conduct process, as set forth in the Student Policy and Procedure Manual.

AMNESTY

Nicholls State University strongly encourages victims and individuals to report all Standards of Conduct violations, acts of discrimination, any violence in general (including sexual violence), and medical emergencies. It is possible that many victims may be hesitant when it comes to reporting conduct that he/she believes violates the Standards of Conduct because of fear that they may be accused of violating policies or sections of the Standards in connection with the incident they are reporting. Underage drinking is a common example of conduct that may have occurred during such an incident. Because of the importance of reporting serious incidents, and to encourage reporting, Nicholls will not normally charge a victim who reports a violation of the Standards, even though the victim may have participated in a non-violent violation of the Standards (e.g., unauthorized use of alcohol). Nicholls may also elect to extend amnesty to students who report medical emergencies that may have occurred during an incident involving a potential violation. In such cases, however, Nicholls may exercise its discretion to impose educational sanctions as a required activity intended to engage the student in a positive learning experience related to the student’s inappropriate behavior.

APPLICATION OF STUDENT POLICY & PROCEDURE MANUAL

Nicholls State University has jurisdiction over violations of the Standards of Conduct at all:

1. University sponsored events (on or off),
2. Where students are enrolled in a Nicholls program offering academic credit or,
3. Elsewhere when the University has an identifiable interest.

The Vice President of Student Affairs or designated representative has sole discretion to determine the jurisdiction, parameters, and/or if the behavior affects a substantial University interest. The University also retains jurisdiction over students who choose to take a leave of absence, withdraw or have graduated for any misconduct that occurred prior to the leave, withdrawal, or graduation. If sanctioned, a hold may be placed on the student's ability to re-enroll and/or obtain official transcripts and all sanctions must be satisfied prior to re-enrollment eligibility. In the event of serious misconduct committed while still enrolled but reported after the accused student has graduated, the University may invoke these procedures should the former student be found responsible.

The Standards of Conduct and its process apply to the conduct of individual students, (undergraduate, graduate, online) and all University affiliated and or sponsored student organizations. For the purposes of student conduct, the University considers an individual to be a student when an offer of admission has been extended and thereafter as long as the student has a continuing educational interest in the University. These Standards may also be applied to resident non-students, campers, and high school bridge/extension/partner/dual-credit and continuing education programs by contractual agreements. Visitors to and guests of the University may seek resolution of violations of the Standards committed against them by students. Matters involving the problematic behavior of a guest may be managed through University police. Students should also understand that online content, including blogs, web posts, chats, and social media interactions, are publicly accessible. Any evidence of policy violations posted online can lead to allegations of misconduct against the student. The University does not regularly search for this information but may take action if and when such information is brought to the attention of University officials. Additionally, most online speech by students not involving University networks or technology will be protected as free expression, with two notable exceptions:

- A true threat, is defined as “a threat a reasonable person would interpret as a serious expression of intent to inflict bodily harm upon specific individuals”;
- Speech posted online about Nicholls State University or its community members that causes a significant disruption.

SANCTIONABLE MISCONDUCT

The following are examples of misconduct prohibited; they are not intended to define misconduct in exhaustive or exclusive terms and should be construed broadly according to the fair import of their terms. The following actions or any actions that violate the University Standards of Conduct will result in being sanctioned by the University and in appropriate cases, referral to the University or other law enforcement personnel, and/or other University officials, for investigation. Violation of any of the Standards of Conduct may, depending on the facts of the case and the student or group's conduct history, result in sanctions including suspension or expulsion.

The Conduct Office addresses violations that occur on-campus, off-campus (when the University has an identifiable interest or the violation affects the University process), and online. While the Conduct Office does not regularly monitor social media sites, receipt of a report indicating behavior that is documented or occurring online will be reasonably investigated. Below is a list and description of the common sanctionable misconduct that students may be responsible for:

The individual requesting the surrender of the Colonel Card must properly identify themselves. Refusal to surrender an identification card is cause for disciplinary action.
9. Computer and Internet use – Students must adhere to the Wireless Network Policy, and Responsible Use Policy as published by Information Technology. A student is responsible for their actions and behaviors while accessing the Nicholls State University Internet technology network. A student may not have access to or use the University’s administrative computer system except in the performance of their assigned duties as a student employee. The State of Louisiana has enacted a number of laws constraining inappropriate or unauthorized use of computers as criminal behavior. For more information see La. R.S. 14.73.7. Destruction, modification, use, copying, or accessing data or programs stored in or with a computer without authorization may result in up to five years of imprisonment, a $10,000 fine, or both. The use of illegal drugs and controlled substances is a violation of federal, state, and municipal laws and the Standards of Conduct. Nicholls cannot and will not protect students from prosecution under federal, state, and municipal laws. The University reserves the right to periodically conduct unannounced canine drug searches in on-campus spaces, including residence hall rooms, to identify the presence of illicit drugs in order to encourage a drug-free living environment.

a. The following rules shall be enforced with respect to student conduct regardless of the status of violation in any court:

- i. Possession of drug paraphernalia as commonly defined (pipes, bongs, etc.) is prohibited. Drug paraphernalia as it applies in this section means any equipment, product, or material of any kind that is used in propagating, cultivating, growing, harvesting, manufacturing, compounding, converting, producing, processing, preparing, testing, analyzing, packaging, storing, containing, concealing, injecting, ingesting, inhaling, or otherwise introducing into the human body a controlled substance.

A student is prohibited from knowingly possessing, displaying, or causing or permitting to be displayed any writing, record, document, or identification form used or maintained by Nicholls knowing the same to be fictitious, altered, forged, counterfeit, or made without proper authority. If a student falsifies a record and it is discovered between the time of their application for admission and the beginning of classes, it could be considered cause for cancellation of registration. This policy will apply to individual students, student groups, and recognized student organizations.

24. Hate Act – Nicholls has an obligation to create and maintain a safe, inclusive learning environment for all members of the university community. As a public institution, we are bound by court rulings that expression, even hateful expression, cannot be punished based on its content or viewpoint alone. Hateful expression that constitutes a true threat, incitement to imminent lawless action, discriminatory harassment, or defamation is subject to sanction.

25. Hazing – Students at Nicholls are expected to be partners in the process of fulfilling the mission of the University by creating and maintaining standards within student groups, teams and organizations that are conducive to personal growth and development. If student groups, teams, and organizations are to play an integral part in the University's plan, they must set standards that challenge each individual to achieve their greatest potential. Hazing is the antithesis of this goal, in that it attempts to tear down the feelings of individual pride and self-esteem of the individual, supposedly in order to create some esprit de corps in the group. Furthermore, Nicholls State University adheres to the UL System Statement on Hazing- Revised 8.27.19 and upholds all LA

Noncompliance will subject a student to further disciplinary action and/or sanctions. Non-compliance factors include, but are not limited to, the following:

Retaliation is a serious violation that can subject the parties to strong responsive action, including sanctions, independent of the merits of the policy violation allegation. Retaliation is prohibited even if the University finds that no violation of the policy occurred. Retaliation is defined as an adverse action or adverse treatment against an individual involved in an investigation by an individual who knew of the individual's participation in the investigation. Anyone experiencing any conduct that he or she believes to be retaliatory (or retaliatory harassment) should immediately report it.

33. Sexual Assault: a) Non-Consensual Sexual Intercourse: Having or attempting to have sexual intercourse, cunnilingus, or fellatio without consent. Sexual intercourse is defined as anal or vaginal penetration by a penis, tongue, finger, or inanimate object. B) Non-Consensual Sexual Contact: Any intentional sexual touching, or attempted sexual touching, without Consent.
34. Sexual Exploitation: An act attempted or committed by a person for sexual gratification, financial gain, or other advancement through the abuse or exploitation of another person's sexuality. Stalking shall include but not be limited to the intentional and repeated uninvited presence of the perpetrator at another person's home, workplace, school, or any place which would cause a reasonable person to be alarmed, or to suffer emotional distress as a result of verbal, written, or behaviorally implied threats of death, bodily injury, sexual assault, kidnapping, or any other statutory criminal act to himself or any member of his family or any person with whom he is acquainted.
<https://legis.la.gov/Legis/Law.aspx?d=78515>

Furthermore, inappropriate behaviors and associated negative consequences of alcohol misuse will not be tolerated. The possession, use, sale, distribution, or manufacture of alcohol shall be done only in accordance with the provisions of federal and state laws, local laws and ordinances, and University regulations, including this policy. AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT

Policy Procedure

I. Self-Identification Process

It is the student's responsibility to self-identify with the Student Access Center, to request accommodations each semester, and to provide their instructor(s) with an accommodation letter from the Student Access Center. Medical documentation to substantiate the claim of a disability must be submitted as part of the self-identification process.

It is the faculty's responsibility to maintain the student's confidentiality, provide appropriate accommodations (approved by Student Access Center) in a timely manner either independently or in collaboration with Student Access Center and the Testing Center. Faculty are to maintain the same standards for students with disabilities as are applied to all other students with the exception of accommodations determined by the Student Access Center.

Faculty members are encouraged to contact Student Access Center at studentaccess@nicholls.edu or 985.448.4430 with any questions or concerns about their students' accommodations. Further information can also be located at <https://www.nicholls.edu/student-access-center/>

Appropriate accommodations enable a student with a disability to compete equally with his/her non-disabled peers but are not intended to place a disabled student at an academic advantage.

II. Appeal Procedure

If any student is dissatisfied with decisions of the Student Access Center or feels that a faculty member has failed to provide accommodations determined by the Student Access Center to be appropriate, students may file a grievance with the EEO/ADA Compliance Office. The procedure is as follows:

Nicholls State University has adopted an internal grievance procedure providing for prompt and equitable resolution of complaints alleging any action prohibited by the U.S. Department of Justice regulations implementing Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act. Title II states, in part, that “no otherwise qualified disabled individual shall, solely by reason of such disability, be excluded from the participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination” in programs or activities sponsored by a public entity.

Complaints should be addressed to the EEO/ADA Compliance Officer, who has been designated to coordinate ADA compliance efforts.

1. A complaint should be filed in writing or verbally, contain the name and address of the person filing it, and briefly describe the alleged violation of the regulations.
2. A complaint should be filed within 10 working days (i.e., days when University offices are open) after the complainant becomes aware of the alleged violation.
3. An investigation, as may be appropriate, shall follow a filing of a complaint. The ADA Compliance Officer or his designee shall conduct the investigation. These rules contemplate informal but thorough investigations, affording all interested persons and their representatives, if any, an opportunity to submit evidence relevant to a complaint.
4. A written determination as to the validity of the complaint and a description of the resolution, if any, shall be issued by the ADA Compliance Officer and a copy forwarded to the complainant no later than 10 working days after its filing.
5. The ADA Compliance Officer shall maintain the files and records of Southeastern Louisiana University relating to the complaints filed.
6. The complainant can request a reconsideration of the case in instances where he/she is dissatisfied with the resolution. The request for reconsideration should be made within 10 working days to the President. The President and his/her designee will render a decision within 10 working days of receipt of the complaint.
7. The right of a person to a prompt and equitable resolution of the complaint filed hereunder shall not be impaired by the person’s pursuit of other remedies such as filing of an ADA complaint with the responsible federal department or agency. Use of this grievance procedure is not a prerequisite to the pursuit of other remedies.
8. These rules shall be construed to protect the substantive rights of interested persons to meet appropriate due process standards and to assure that Nicholls State University complies with the ADA and implementing regulations.

FERPA – FEDERAL EDUCATION RIGHTS AND PRIVACY ACT

Protection against Improper Disclosure

Information about student views, beliefs, and political associations that employees acquire as instructors, advisors, and counselors is considered confidential. Judgments of ability and character may be provided under appropriate circumstances, normally with the knowledge and consent of the student.

Protection of Student Records

1. The student's permanent educational record remains a personal document, and its contents are revealed only under rigid regulations as specified in the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (known as FERPA or the Buckley Amendment), 20 U. S. Code 1232g, 20 Code of Federal Regulations Part 99. Academic transcripts contain information concerning the academic status of the individual; disciplinary records are maintained separately from academic records in order to prevent simultaneous disclosure. No records are available to unauthorized persons either inside or outside the academic community without the express consent of the student involved (or their legal guardian in the case of a student who is a minor).
 2. Civil authorities must present an order of the court to have access to these records. Staff and faculty should respect confidential information about students which they acquire in the course of their work. Students should likewise exercise extreme caution in the circulation of information about fellow students that does not have a direct bearing upon their academic performance. The student has the right to obtain a copy of their academic transcript from the Office of Student Records.

Should a student depart before an investigation and/or adjudication of an alleged infraction is completed, the judicial process may proceed in their absence.

The following are not complaints (this is a noninclusive list):

- Oral allegations that are not provided in writing.
- Anonymous complaints may not be sufficient to proceed in this process.
- Courtesy copies of correspondence or a complaint filed with or otherwise submitted to another person or entity.

Should a student choose not to schedule or attend a conduct meeting, the meeting may proceed, and conclusions may be reached in their absence. Findings will be based on the information made available to the staff member at the time of the conduct meeting. Although students are expected to comply with all conduct procedures, failure to respond or appear as provided in these regulations will not be construed as an admission of guilt. In cases where more than one student is alleged to be responsible for a violation of these regulations, the staff member may determine that a single consolidated conduct meeting be conducted to review and determine the matter(s) pertaining to those students. Students may request to have their cases heard individually.
- 4. Preliminary Hearing | During a conduct meeting, student(s) will have the opportunity to review the evidence alleging their involvement in a policy violation(s). Students will have an opportunity to respond to the allegations(s) contained in a complaint filed by presenting information relevant to their case as provided in these regulations. Documentary evidence and oral statements relevant to the case will be considered by the Dean of Students only when the person(s) providing that the evidence or statements can be made available for examination at a conduct meeting unless the Dean of Students determines that it is unreasonable or impossible to enforce this requirement. At the conclusion of the meeting, responsibility will be determined by a preponderance of evidence, meaning that the majority of evidence indicates that the resident is responsible for the incident or behavior.

5. Decision is Made and an Outcome Letter is Provided | Students will be notified in writing of the final decision of the Dean of Students after the judicial meeting is completed. Under most circumstances, the Dean of Students or designee will make a determination at the end of the meeting regarding responsibility of the alleged sanctionable misconduct, but should more time to deliberate be needed, a decision must be made five regular university operational days. The decision of the Dean of Students shall constitute the written record of the meeting and shall be kept on file with the Dean of Students Office. All conduct proceedings under these regulations are subject to all applicable laws and regulations governing the privacy and disclosure of student records. The Dean of Students or designee shall make the final determination(s) in all disciplinary actions taken under these procedures.
6. Student May Choose to Appeal in Writing/Email | The decision of the Dean of Students or designee may be appealed, in writing, within five (5) university operating days of the date the decision letter is rendered. If the Chair of the Committee determines the appeal meets the below criteria, the appeal will be heard by the universities' Student Conduct and Accountability Committee. Appeals must be submitted in writing to the Chair of the Student Conduct and Accountability Committee.

Written appeals must cite specific reasons for a reconsideration of the decision. The right to appeal the decision is limited and may be based only on:

- a. the grounds that procedural error(s) occurred at the judicial meeting that unfairly affected the outcome of a case.
 - b. compelling new evidence, relevant to the outcome of a case, was discovered and was demonstrably not available at the time of the judicial meeting. New evidence may be submitted after the seven-day appeal limit; however, sanctions do take effect after the seven-day timeline. Thus, appeals may or may not affect sanctions.
 - c. specific conditions that provide good cause for reconsidering a case. This can include unduly harsh sanctions or demonstrated bias against a resident during the conduct process.
7. Sanctions | Normally, sanction(s) will be imposed against a student before the conclusion of the conduct meeting process as provided in these procedures.

Interim Actions | The Dean of Students or their designee may determine that sufficient cause exists to impose interim actions on a student pending disciplinary committee proceedings. These interim measures are necessary to ensure the physical safety of members of the campus community during a timely investigation and adjudication of a student disciplinary issue. Such measures may include, but are not limited to, adjusting student housing arrangements, imposing conditions of mutual no-contact between the student respondent and the complainant, temporarily suspending a student, or banning a student from campus. The implementation of these reasonable interim measures shall require the following:

1. Within seventy-two hours of the alleged violation being deemed an immediate threat, written notice of the interim measure that explains the institution's reasons for enacting the measures.
 2. Within seven business days of the written notice as outlined in the above paragraph, unless otherwise waived by the student respondent, an interim measure hearing to determine whether there is substantial evidence that the student pose a risk to the physical safety of a member of the campus community and that the interim measure is appropriate to mitigate that risk. At the hearing, both the respondent and the alleged complainant shall have the right to be represented, at the student's expense, by an attorney or a non-attorney advocate who may fully participate during the hearing. A student respondent's waiver of the right to an interim measure hearing shall not constitute an admission of guilt or a waiver of any additional rights provided for in this section.
- 8. Discipline/Punitive Fines | In violations where a fine is imposed, future violations for similar offenses are progressive. Below is a potential example of a progressive fine:
- i. First Violation:
 1. Fine - $25.00 and a written warning
 - ii. Second Violation:
 1. Fine - $50.00, educational sanction and discipline probation
 - iii. Third Violation:
 1. Fine - $75.00 - $100.00 and potential suspension (depending on severity of violation)

1. If the student does not agree to a resolution as proposed:
 - a. They may file an appeal to the next University officer, Student Conduct and Accountability Committee chair, within five (5) workdays of the notification of the proposed resolution.
 - b. Written appeals must cite specific reasons for a reconsideration of the decision. The right to appeal the decision is limited and may be based only on:
 - i. the grounds that procedural error(s) occurred at the judicial meeting that unfairly affected the outcome of a case.
 - ii. compelling new evidence, relevant to the outcome of a case, was discovered and was demonstrably not available at the time of the judicial meeting. New evidence may be submitted after the seven-day appeal limit; however, sanctions do take effect after the seven-day timeline. Thus, appeals may or may not affect sanctions.
 - iii. specific conditions that provide good cause for reconsidering a case. This can include unduly harsh sanctions or demonstrated bias against a resident during the conduct process.
2. The appeal will be decided within ten (10) workdays, based on the student's letter of appeal as well as all notes and documentation produced during the discussions.
3. The appeal officer may speak with all of the parties involved, or with none; however, the appeal officer will not speak with only one of the parties without also speaking with the other(s).
4. A formal notification of the appeal outcome will be sent to the student.
5. Should the student not find the outcome of the first appeal to be satisfactory, they may continue to the Vice President for Student Affairs with the same ten (10) day turnaround time with the University President being the final level of internal appeal. The President may choose to have the President's Cabinet review the case and submit a recommendation.
6. The student may appeal the president's decision to the Board of Supervisors for the University of Louisiana System. The Board's review of the matter will be limited to a determination of compliance with established and appropriate procedures at the institutional level. The final decision will be conveyed to the student in writing from the University President's office.

Documentation and Record of Process

1. All documentation throughout the process must be maintained by officials involved and submitted into the Maxient system with the final resolution outcome signed by the student and the last official addressing the case. The Dean of Students office will assist those who do not have direct access to that system.
2. The student is assured that no retaliatory action will be taken against them for filing and pursuing the resolution of a complaint. All written and otherwise recorded materials relating to the filing and resolution of student complaints are to be considered education records, and, as such, are protected by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA - The Buckley Amendment).

FERPA NOTIFICATION

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) (20 U.S.C. § 1232g; 34 CFR Part 99) is a Federal law that protects the privacy of student education records. The law applies to all schools that receive funds under an applicable program of the U.S. Department of Education. FERPA gives parents certain rights with respect to their children's education records. These rights transfer to the student when he or she reaches the age of 18 or attends a school beyond the high school level. Students to whom the rights have transferred are "eligible students."

Nicholls State University reserves the right to notify parents/guardians of dependent students regarding any conduct situation. Where a student is not a dependent, Nicholls may contact parents/guardians to inform them of situations in which there is a health and/or safety risk, any conduct violation relating to alcohol and drug policy violations, and when a student is removed from the University.

STUDENT CONDUCT AND ACCOUNTABILITY COMMITTEE

The Student Conduct and Accountability Committee is responsible for hearing unresolved cases involving violations of the Standards of Conduct (other than academic cheating or plagiarism and disruptive behavior related to a classroom or academic activity) and appeals filed by students as a result of discipline actions taken administratively.

The Student Conduct and Accountability Committee consists of:

- One faculty member from each Academic College appointed by the Vice President for Student Affairs,
- Two representatives from Student Affairs appointed by the Vice President for Student Affairs, and,
- Seven student members of the Student Government Association Student Supreme Court.

The committee elects the Chair. The committee will also elect a Vice-Chair, who shall conduct the meeting in the absence of the Chair. In the absence of the chair and vice-chair, the longest serving member of the committee attending the hearing shall act as chair.

A quorum consists of five members of the committee, of which two must be student members and two must be faculty members. The committee, at the request of the student respondent, may waive this quorum requirement.

SANCTIONS

In general, sanctions will be proportionate to the severity of the violation(s) as determined in the discretion of the University.

Possible Sanctions

The following sanctions may be assigned violations of the Standards of Conduct:

1. Written Reprimand – written reprimand from the Dean to the student, on whom the penalty is imposed, placed in the student’s permanent university discipline record.
2. Written Warning – written notification that further violations of any of the standards may result in more severe disciplinary action. A written warning may be imposed for a period of not more than one calendar year, and the warning period will expire after the determined amount of time.

8. Service Hours – The appropriate administrative party may assign community service work to fit the particular case.
9. Suspension of Rights and Privileges – an elastic penalty. The Dean of Students or designee or Student Conduct and Accountability Committee may impose limitations to fit the particular case, which could include eviction from the residence facilities and/or prohibition from entering or visiting any area of the campus.

During the period of suspension, the University may prohibit the student on whom this penalty is imposed from taking or completing classes, from living in campus housing, from visiting the University campus without prior written approval of the Dean of Students or designee, from being initiated into an honorary, social or service organization, and from receiving credit from any college or university, public or private, for academic work done in residence or by correspondence or extension. A discipline suspension message will appear on the grade label of any student suspended for discipline reasons, and the student will receive F's for all courses in which he/she is enrolled. The discipline message is removed at the end of the suspension period; however, the failing grades will remain.
 14. Temporary Suspension until an administrative hearing can be held – may be used in the event of a threat of safety to the University community, if a student refuses to answer a summons or in any case of student conduct which disrupts or may disrupt university activities or services.
 15. Dismissal from the University – A student is suspended for an indefinite period of time and may be readmitted only by action of the Student Conduct and Accountability Committee. After a reasonable or specified period of time has passed, the student must petition the Student Conduct and Accountability Committee or readmission. A letter addressed to the Committee chair must prove to the Committee that the actions for which the student was dismissed will not occur again, with documentation in support thereof. The Committee may ask the student to appear in person. The Committee may take any of the following actions:
 - a. deny the student's readmission;
 - b. readmit the student on probation and with restrictions upon their campus privileges;

APPENDIX C: Colonel CARE Team

Colonel Care (Coordinate, Assess, Respond, Educate)

Introduction

College students often have difficulty adjusting to college life, but in some cases students who are in distress (including but not limited to physical, emotional, situational or psychological) cannot function in their personal lives and/or focus on learning. Colonel CARE's (Coordinate, Assess, Respond, Educate) purpose is to assist with any situation that could potentially disrupt a student's academic or social wellbeing within the university community. The team provides early assessment and referral when an individual's behavior is identified as concerning, risky, or potentially harmful to self, others, or the community. We plan to intervene early and support the student. The team reviews individual cases and coordinates an appropriate action plan for response. An ethic of care and attention to the safety and wellbeing of individuals, the campus, and community guide all recommendations.

Nicholls State University is committed to providing a campus environment that is conducive to students to develop their full potential. In addition, there may be times when the university is required to respond to a person of concern. Through development of the CARE Team, the University has created a mechanism to identify students in distress. This mechanism will initiate support and safety interventions, which will provide the student with the greatest chance of success and the university community the greatest level of protection.

Mission Statement

The mission of the Nicholls State University CARE Team is to provide a program for identification, intervention, and response to person(s) of concern while balancing the needs of the individual with those of the community. The CARE Team identifies students, faculty, and staff whose behavioral patterns have raised concern about their well-being; centralizes communication to gain a more complete understanding of the whole individual; and develops a collaborative outreach plan with campus and community resources to address identified risks.

Responsibilities

The primary duties and responsibilities of the CARE Team include the following tasks:

- Create a reporting mechanism that allows both the university and the surrounding community to easily and confidentially report behaviors of concern.
- Facilitate referrals.
- Develop an integrated case management plan. Monitor and provide a systematic response to situations involving students, faculty, or staff whose behavior or condition may be disruptive or harmful to themselves or others in the University community, or students who pose a direct threat (or create distress) to themselves or others.

- Educate, consult, and support faculty, staff and administration creating awareness and access to resources for student support.

APPENDIX E: General Student Complaint Process

Student Complaints and Their Resolution

Procedure for Resolution of General Student Complaints

Students are encouraged to seek informal resolution of complaints with the individual or department with whom the issue is associated. If the result is unsatisfactory to the student or directly approaching the individual or department is inappropriate or unsafe, students may file a formal written complaint by completing the General Complaint and Reporting Form which can also be found on the web pages of Student Affairs, Dean of Students, Student Policy and Procedure Manual, University Police, Student Government Association, and Human Resources. Complaints received through email or direct message on social media will receive a reply with the link to the reporting form and directive to complete that form. Although anonymous complaints will be accepted, this may affect the outcome and resolution or delay the process.

General complaints related to this policy typically involve unfair treatment, generally unequal treatment, substandard physical facility conditions, behavior that a student may feel is unjust or creates unnecessary hardship, or other general concerns that warrant actions and are not included in the exclusions list below which have separate complaint policies and protocols.

Considerations for the process:

- If the official who responsible in a particular step is inaccessible for the duration of the days allotted for that step (i.e. vacation, professional travel), a delegate may be assigned to perform duties described herein
- Meetings may be in-person or virtual. The student's preference should be given priority, but the student should give consideration to using the method that will ensure the process is completed within the allotted time frame(s).

Filing of Initial Complaint

The student must file the complaint within 6 months of the date the alleged incident occurred.

- Once the Form is completed and submitted, it will be routed to the direct supervisor or department head of the individual/department against whom the complaint is filed and that person will contact the student within five (5) working days following the submission of the form to confirm all pertinent information and discuss the process.

- Within ten (10) working days following student contact, the supervisor will do what is necessary to gather information, investigate, or evaluate the complaint, including meeting with the person against whom the complaint is filed.
- At the end of the information gathering, the supervisor has five (5) working days to recommend a resolution to the student.

Appeal of Resolution of Initial Complaint

If the student does not agree to a resolution as proposed:

- They may file an appeal to the next University officer in the chain of command within five (5) workdays of the notification of the proposed resolution.
 - In the appeal letter, which must be submitted through the Student Complaint Appeal, the student must state with specificity why they believe the proposed resolution to be unacceptable and why their desired resolution is preferable.
- The appeal will be decided within ten (10) workdays, based on the student's letter of appeal as well as all notes and documentation produced during the discussions.
 - The appeal officer may speak with all of the parties involved or with none; however, the appeal officer will not speak with only one of the parties without also speaking with the other(s).
 - Formal notification of the appeal outcome will be sent to the student.

Should the student not find the outcome of the first appeal to be satisfactory, they may continue to the next officer in that chain of command with the same ten (10) day turnaround time, with the University President being the final level of internal appeal. The President may choose to have the President's Cabinet review the case and submit a recommendation.

The student may appeal the president's decision to the Board of Supervisors for the University of Louisiana System. The Board's review of the matter will be limited to a determination of compliance with established and appropriate procedures at the institutional level. The final decision will be conveyed to the student in writing from the University President's office.

Documentation and Record of Process

The Maxient software system is by nature a centralized reporting and record-keeping system in that all records and associated materials are stored within the system regardless of the reporting source, offices involved, or individual/department responsible for the final resolution in order to prevent students and cases from "falling through the cracks." The primary administrator for the Maxient system is the director of Student Compliance and Ethical Development.

All documentation throughout the process must be maintained by the individual departments addressing the complaint and submitted into the Maxient system with the final resolution outcome signed by the last official addressing the case. Elements of the complaint review include case, demographics, contact, incident, electronic file cabinet, assignment, resolution, actions, tasks, notes, and others, which includes the status of the case.

The student is assured that no retaliatory action will be taken against them for filing and pursuing the resolution of a complaint. All written and otherwise recorded materials relating to the filing and resolution of student complaints are to be considered education records and, as such, are protected by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (The Buckley Amendment).

Exclusions

The general complaint process does not apply to certain situations that may have specific sets of protocols for response governed by other entities, regulations, or mandates. The list below addresses most of these but should not be considered exhaustive. If you are looking for a particular area that is not on this list, please contact the Dean of Students office for assistance.

Institutional Accountability and Complaint Information

The State of Louisiana and the U. S. Department of Education have mandated that institutions of higher education have in place a specific procedure for the resolution of student complaints. State and federal governments are most interested in complaints that involve: 1) the mismanagement of federal financial aid funds and 2) false representation of programs and courses of study that may appear in an institution's various publications.

Additionally, Nicholls State University is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges. Students should only contact the Commission if there is evidence that appears to support the institution's significant non-compliance with a SACSCOC accreditation requirement or standard. It may be reached at <http://www.sacscoc.org>, 404-679-4500 or 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, GA 30033.

Although Nicholls State University adheres strictly to all rules and regulations and represents as clearly as possible to students the information pertaining to their education here, students who may have complaints in any of these areas are encouraged to bring them to the University's attention through the procedure outlined above.
